Arts

Airplanes

Lee Moavenzadeh led an aviation lesson in how airplanes fly and gave the students an kit to make their own airplane.

Therapeutic Art

Robin Brown challenged each student to make a Therapeutic Artwork which involved internal and external characteristics of themselves.

Arts

Speech Pathology

Imane Shoulars made a presentation on Speech Pathology. She informed each camper how important it is to have a journal. At the last day's performance Miss Shoulars gave the campers a bag that included items needed to write in their journal and positive quotes.

Kaleidocycle

The campers each colored and constructed their own kaleidocycles. A kaleidocycle is a mesmerizing 3D geometric paper toy made of linked triangular pyramids that continuously twist and rotate inward on themselves.

Arts

Bouncing Bulldogs

Members of the Bouncing BullDogs and owner, Coach Ray Frederick, came to speak about the importance of teamwork, trust and dedication . They did a short double dutch jump rope presentation.

Human Body

Students were able to move and find out the importance of keeping our skeletal system in proper condition. Kate Finlayson came and led the students in an active movement.
